 Continuation of 4(e) Other: It appears that claim 1, line 10 is deleting "code" from the claim language, but the strikethrough is hard to distinguish. In cases where the strikethrough is hard to distinguish, or five or less characters are being deleted, double brackets should be used, see 37 CFR 1.121 (c) (2). In this case, less than five characters are being deleted and the strikethrough is not clear, therefore it is hard to determine whether it is intended as a strikethrough or an error in the scan or copy. As such, please make this and all other appropriate corrections to show the language changes to clarify the intended language of the claim.
